Notification

I&L/1545/66/2849

The following draft of the rules which are proposed to be made by the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by sub-section (1) and clauses (h) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 52 of the Inland Steam Vessels Act, 1917, as extended to the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu, is hereby prepublished in accordance with section 74(1) of the said Act. Any suggestions with regard to the draft rules may please be communicated to the undersigned within one month from the date of the publication hereof for consideration and issue of necessary Rules. Any communication received thereafter shall not be taken into consideration.

1. Short title: (i) These rules may be called the Inland Steam Vessels (Motor Navigation) Rules, 1967;

(ii) They shall come into force at once.

2. No Inland Steam Vessel shall proceed on a voyage, if she is unsafe by reason of the defective condition of her hull, equipment or machinery or by reason of overloading or improper loading or excessive tow load.

3. Every person who sends or attempts to send an Inland Steam Vessel on any voyage or service in such an unsafe state that the life of any person is likely to be thereby endangered shall unless he proves that he used all reasonable means to ensure her being sent on the voyage or service in an unsafe state or that her going on the voyage or service in such an unsafe state was under the circumstances reasonable and justifiable shall be an offence under these rules.

4. An Inland Steam Vessel is said to be unsafe within the meaning of these rules when the material of which she is made, her construction, the qualifications of the master and driver, the number, description and qualifications of the crew the weight, description and stowage of the cargo and blast, the condition of the hull and equipment, boilers and machinery, are not such as to render her in every respect fit for a proposed voyage or service.

5. Masters and serangs must use their discretion in towing crafts alongside or astern of their vessels and must be guided by conditions of weather, traffic and width of the waterways.

6. In every case when an Inland Steam Vessel meets another in narrow waters both vessels shall ease down and pass at a dead slow speed. When two Inland Steam Vessels are proceeding in the same direction, subject to circumstances permitting, the overtaking vessel shall indicate its desire to overtake the other vessel by giving one long blast on her whistle. The vessel being overtaken shall then, subject to circumtances permitting, shall steer clear from the channel and indicate such alteration by appropriate signals on her whistle.

7. When navigating in narrow rivers, canals, where a backwash is likely to be set up sufficient cause undue erosion or damage in the river bank, Inland Steam Vessels shall proceed at a reduced speed, and observe extreme care and caution.

8. Inland Steam Vessels shall not go alongside any bunds (except at authorised loading points) unless required due to emergency for safety of life and property.

9. When passing places where small crafts are engaged in fishing, Inland Steam Vessels shall proceed at such reduced speeds, as to prevent damage being done to the small craft or life on board.

10. The speed of Inland Steam Vessels shall be reduced when approaching ferry crossings and shall proceed with great caution giving right of way to such ferries.

11. The masters of Inland Steam Vessels whilst navigating, in the approaches to or under bridges, across the rivers, canals or creeks shall, proceed at such a speed that they are able to stop the vessel within its own length.

12. All Inland Steam Vessels when navigating between the approaches to Aguada Bar and Panaji jetty shall, in view of the narrow channels and limited room for manouvering, give the right of way to all coastal passenger vessels.

13. Any owner, agent, master or serang, committing the breach of any of these rules shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or a fine of Rs. 500/- or with both.

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.

Panaji, 22nd November, 1967.

Notification

1/41/66-MI

Dated 30th September, 1967

G. S. R.—The following draft of certain regulations to amend the Coal Mines Regulations, 1957, which the Central Government proposes to make, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 57 of the Mines Act, 1952 (35 of 1952) is published as required by sub-section (1) of section 59 of the said Act, for the information of all persons likely to be affected hereby; and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 15th January, 1968.

Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be considered by the Central Government.

DRAFT REGULATIONS

1. (1) These regulations may be called the Coal Mines (Amendment) Regulations, 1967.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. In the Coal Mines Regulations, 1957, for regulation 11, the following regulation shall be substituted, namely:—

11. Board of Mining Examinations.—(1) For the purposes of these regulations, there shall be constituted a Board of Mining Examinations, hereinafter referred to as «the Board».

(2) The Board shall consist of the Chief Inspector, who shall be its Chairman ex-officio, and

(a) four members possessing technical qualifications and practical experience in coal mines; and

(b) one member possessing technical qualifications in mining and serving in an institution imparting education in mining engineering at the degree or equivalent level.

to be appointed by the Central Government.

(3) Every member (other than the Chairman) of the Board shall hold Office for a period of three years from the date of the notification appointing him a member of the Board or until his successor is appointed and takes charge, whichever is later:

Provided that,—

(i) a member may at any time resign his Office;

(ii) a member appointed under clause (b) of sub-regulation (2) shall cease to hold Office upon his ceasing to serve in any such institution as is referred to in that clause;

(iii) a person appointed to fill a vacancy caused by reason of the death, resignation, or by reason of cessor of office under sub-clause (ii), of a member, shall hold office for the remaining period for which such member would have, but for such reason, continued as member.

(4) A person who holds, or who has held office as member of the Board shall, subject to the other provisions of this regulation, be eligible for re-appointment to that Office.

(5) A member of the Board (other than the Chairman) shall receive such remuneration as the Central Government may fix.

(6) An Inspector nominated in this behalf by the Chief Inspector shall act as the Secretary to the Board.

(7) No act or proceeding of the Board shall be invalidated merely by reason of any vacancy or other defect in its constitution.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, the Central Government may, if satisfied that it is necessary so to do in the public interest, re-constitute the Board even though the term of office of all or any of the members thereof has not come to an end.
